

UNDER VALERIE JARRETT & OBAMA- WW III Defeat & FEMA CAMPS ARE PLANNED

Posted on March 19, 2014 by Dave Hodges

In the picture above, Valerie Jarrett looks healthy, professional, poised and dignified. She has spent the better portion of her life projecting this image. This is not the typical "hit piece" on the President's chief advisor, Valerie Jarrett. This article does not attempt to demean Obama by denigrating someone who is close to him. This article represents what should have been done well before the moment Valerie Jarrett ever set foot in the White House. The fundamental question posed by this article is: "Is Valerie Jarrett loyal to the United States of America, or, is she plotting to compromise the future of this country in her position as the President's most trusted advisor?" Repeatedly, we have heard the mantra that Valerie Jarrett controls the Presidency. Therefore, whomsoever controls Jarrett, controls the Presidency to a very large extent. With Russian troops on our soil and the specter of war with Russia in our immediate future, it would be very prudent to know much, much more about Valerie Jarrett and whose purposes she really serves.

Valerie Jarrett: Enemy of the Republic

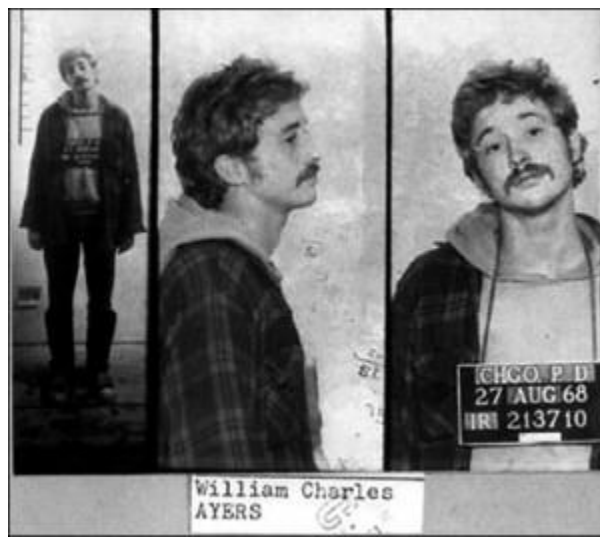

President Obama loves to pose as the savior of the oppressed American middle class who are repeatedly victimized by "fat cat" bankers. Obama is so opposed to the banker influence in government that he appointed one of them to become his Senior White House Advisor. I am speaking about none other than Valerie Jarrett. From 2006-2007, Jarrett was a member of the Board of Directors for the Chicago branch of the Federal Reserve. Shouldn't this be called "sleeping with the enemy?"

Jarrett's Early Pedigree As A Communist Agitator

Bill Ayers Mug Shot

Valerie Jarrett's early pedigree should make all of us very nervous. Jarrett is one of the "Chicago Bolsheviks", who comes from a family which intermarried with the Tom and Bill Ayers family. Yes, that would be the Weathermen Underground terrorist leader, Bill Ayers. Yes, that would also be the same Bill Ayers who told FBI informant, who penetrated the Weathermen, the late Larry Grathwohl, "that when we take over the United States, we will forcibly detain 50 million Americans in re-education camps in which they will probably have to murder 25 million American citizens who cannot be re-educated." Grathwohl, whom I interviewed January 6, 2013, repeated the Ayers statement on the August 18th (2012) edition of The Common Sense Show. This is the same Valerie Jarrett family which was also involved with Frank Davis the former head of the Communist Party in the United States. This is the same Frank Davis who Joel Gilbert exposed as Obama's real father. Additionally, the Jarrett family is also affiliated with other so-called "Red Diaper Babies" in which this young group of intellectual elites called for a communist takeover of the United States in the late 1960's and early 1970's. For those that know their "hippie era" history, you will remember that these are the same criminals who engaged in terrorist attacks upon innocent Americans involving the detonation of explosive devices in which people died, including a San Francisco police officer. Bill Ayers wife, Bernardine Dorne served a prison term for her participation with this group. And we also know, that Bill Ayers and Bernadine Dorne, close friends of Jarrett to this day, funded President Obama's Harvard education. These facts have led many to believe that Valerie Jarrett is making the major decisions in the White House as a communist plot. Could, or would, Jarrett ever embrace the Ayers philosophy or re-education camps and mass extermination for those whom they deem to be an enemy of the new American communism? The following paragraph is strongly suggestive of this possibility.

Communist sympathizer, Valerie Jarrett, is rumored, from multiple sources, that just prior to the 2012 general election, to have issued a clear threat against the rank and file members of the American public who do not support President Obama. Allegedly Jarrett said “After we win this election, it is payback time. For those who supported us, there will be rewards, for the ones who opposed us, they will get what they deserve. There will be hell to pay. Congress won’t be a problem for us this time. With no election to worry about, we have two judges ready to go.” Isn’t Jarrett’s statement similar to the following quote made by Obama to outgoing Russian President, Medvedev, regarding American military defense?

President Obama Asks Medvedev for ‘Space’ on Missile Defense — ‘After My Election I Have More Flexibility’

ABC News

The above statement cannot be interpreted as anything but treason against the interests of the American people.

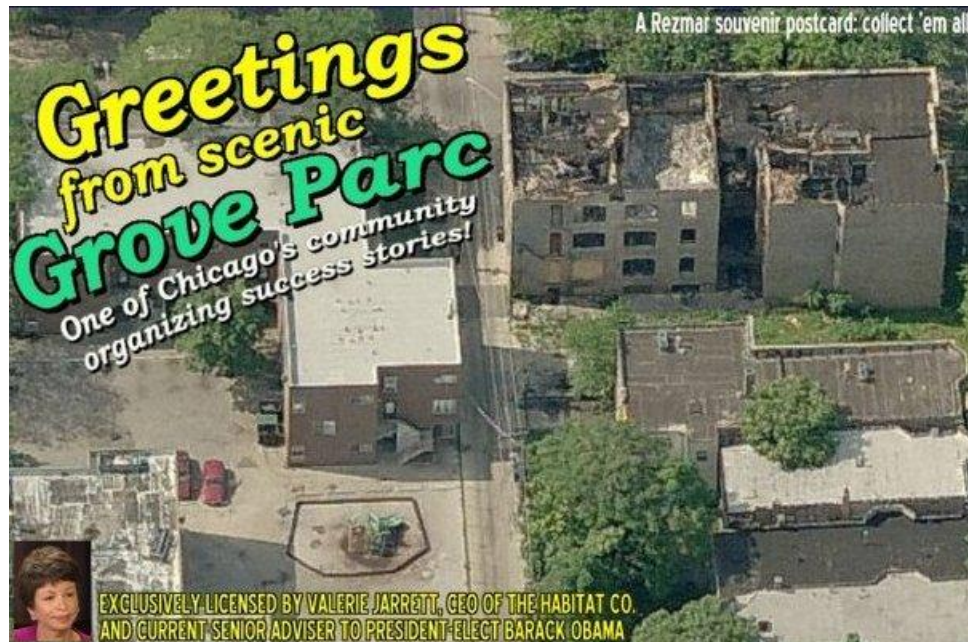

Jarrett’s Communist Pedigree

Although Jarrett certainly does have the pedigree of a committed communist bent on the destruction of the United States as we know it, her aforementioned actions and statements do not directly prove prosecutable criminal activity, although they are strongly suggestive that the present Senior White House Advisor, is in violation of her oath of office to protect and defend the Constitution from enemies both foreign and domestic and should be removed from office. True to her paranoid ideation, Jarrett sees perceived racism in the wallpaper of a room. While serving as the Department of Planning and Development Commissioner for the City of Chicago, Jarrett once harassed a white business owner for not paying sufficient deference, in print, to the memory of the city’s first black mayor in the mid-1990’s. As Ellie Monty was actually one of the two white owners of the small firm targeted by Jarrett on this issue. Monty described the event as a contrived racial incident in which Jarrett was using fake racial issues to make a name for herself as a reformer. I believe in modern day parlance, this attack on Monty would be referred to as a false flag event and we know that the Obama Administration is no stranger to the topic of false flag attacks. And speaking of wallpaper, there is absolute proof that Jarrett was a vicious slum lord and took advantage of the poverty-stricken black people that she seemingly worked so hard to defend as a reformer.

Would Valerie Make a Good FEMA Camp “Slum Lord”?

After reading the following paragraphs contained in this subsection, please tell me the difference between this photograph (exhibit #1).....

...and the following photograph (exhibit #2)

Valerie Jarrett is indeed both a criminal and a human rights violator. She has participated in abusing large numbers of impoverished black citizens and her actions have contributed to these poor souls living in a squalor befitting the worst of a third world country. Unfortunately, Jarrett's actions took place in Chicago, not in a third world country. Jarrett performed her misdeeds in former State Senator Obama's Senatorial district in which the future president secured federal funding for Jarrett's slum housing project. Jarrett's political record in Chicago was nothing to be proud about. Jarrett, already was known for her corruption and incompetence, when she was eventually fired by Mayor Daley after a scandal erupted over her role in misuse of public funds in the city's substandard public housing. Jarrett was the former CEO of Habitat Co., which managed Grove Parc Plaza beginning in 2001 and continued through the time that she served as a member of Obama's presidential campaign finance committee, until the federally subsidized Chicago complex was seized by the federal government after inspectors found the conditions to be unlivable, just like we anticipate a FEMA camp will be like.

Amazingly, while Jarrett was serving as Daley's Deputy Chief of Staff, she was receiving $300,000 per year in her role as CEO and slum lord to Grove Parc. I thought in the United States that we sent slum lords to jail, not to become the chief advisor to the President. Of course in Chicago, conflict of interest has never been a punishable crime. And if you were the President, wouldn't you be concerned about your image with regard to making such an appointment to your inner circle of advisors? Of course, any President would be concerned unless his administration was made up of like-minded criminals and then Jarrett would be a welcome addition to Obama's den of thieves. I want to leave you with one question: Would a woman who would oversee a slum lord operation such as Grove Parc, hesitate to promote the "FEMA Camp re-education centers" of 50 million Americans as called for by the Jarretts' former allies, the Ayers' family?

Jarrett's Corruption Continues

Jarrett further demonstrates her international bankster pedigree because she is also complicit in the Solyndra debacle. Jarrett promoted Solyndra because one of her richest Chicago connections, billionaire George Kaiser, a top Obama bundler, had a 35% share in Solyndra. Kaiser visited the White House sixteen times and eventually secured almost $535 million in taxpayer giveaways without producing one kilowatt of energy. Jarrett's abuse of power knows no bounds as she pushed Obama to take on the Catholic Church over contraception, thus using government to subvert religious doctrine. Valerie Jarrett is the most powerful woman in Washington DC. She has guided the president's decisions on health care, the budget, the stimulus, the deficit and in our botched foreign affairs travesties.

Jarrett and the Chicago Climate Exchange

Before one can totally subjugate the American people, they must be disarmed. Jarrett, too, has played a prominent role in the gun confiscation crowd.

At the urging of Al Gore, Jarrett and Obama became directors at the Joyce Foundation, which is ostensibly referred to as a "charity" which funds gun control initiatives such as the ones sponsored by New York Mayor, Michael Bloomberg. This is a clear prelude to the elimination of the Second Amendment and the confiscation of guns. Interestingly, the Joyce Foundation eventually raised the seed money to begin the Chicago Climate Exchange (CCX). The Chicago Climate Exchange once hailed itself as a future $10 trillion a year for profit venture derived from the trading of carbon credits in which this carbon trading scheme would eventually become its own currency. The CCX would have become the center of the climate change rip off of the consumer public. However, Obama's cap and trade plan failed in the Senate during his first term. However, we can clearly state that Jarrett was clearly behind the attempted Cap and Trade economic crippling efforts of the Obama administration. The CCX attempted to survive through the voluntary trading of carbon credits. This venture failed miserably and the CCX closed its doors in 2010.

The CCX venture was not a total loss for the administration and Jarrett, personally. The CCX venture did bring together key players in the cap and trade business in which the foundation for the complete control of the country's industry and finance was laid in place should the United States eventually embrace the purpose of the CCX mandate which is to de-industrialize the United States through taxing industry and the workers out of economic existence. It is safe to say that both the President and Valerie Jarrett are traitors to the United States. They represent enemies both foreign (Obama) and domestic (Jarrett) to the American people

Jarrett's Confederates Are Criminal

Is there no end to the corruption?

Jarrett's business partner and attorney, Dan Mahru of Chicago, following his guilty plea to a federal criminal information scheme, was charged with defrauding his mother and the estate set up to provide for her care. Mahru and Tony Rezko are former business partners. You remember Rezko don't you? Rezko is serving a 10 ½ year prison term for squeezing $7 million in kickbacks from firms that wanted to do business with the state of Illinois. Rezko donated $250,000 to Obama's first presidential election campaign. And speaking of slum lord activity, Jarrett has a long history of involvement with Rezko confederates in a series of slum lord projects (e.g. Woodlawn Development) which have victimized Chicago's poor for over two decades. The Judicial Watch documents, obtained to support some of these allegations of criminal associations between Jarrett and Chicago slum lord mafia are listed here. Judicial Watch President Tom Fitton sums it up best when he stated "Like Barack Obama, Valerie Jarrett is a product of the corrupt Chicago political machine. And it is no stretch to say that she was a slumlord." We have real concerns about Jarrett's ethics. Washington already has plenty of corruption. We don't need to import more of it from Chicago." I go further than Mr. Fitton. Valerie Jarrett is the fulfillment of what early Soviet defectors warned us about. She and Obama represent the defeat from within we have been warned about. The reader would be well-advised to read the linked account of what the Russians defectors warned us about. With regard to Valerie Jarrett's fitness to serve in a lofty political position in our government, one should realize that we are not just speaking about a woman with a criminal past which spans decades of malfeasance of office and misappropriation of federal funds, we are speaking about an individual who's psychological profile is suggestive of a sociopath who does not care about the thousands of poor residents she has harmed through her ventures into inner city housing. Take a moment and reread the first portion of this article about the Jarrett pedigree. Jarrett is clearly a psychopath who would have no hesitation of carrying out the Bill Ayers mandate of sending 50 million Americans to re-education camps and murdering 25 million of them. I believe that many American soldiers will hesitate if ordered to fire on American citizens. However, I do not think for a moment that Jarrett would hesitate in advising Obama to give such an order.

Traitors

Just based upon these facts alone, we are in a lot of trouble, America. And this is just the beginning of the revelations which demonstrate that we are being ruled by nothing other than pure criminals with very evil intent designed to bring about the domestic collapse of the United States. Why are Russian soldiers still on American soil as we are preparing to go to war with Russia? Isn't one Russian soldier too many in the present political climate?

The 2012 election is history. Obama and his senior advisor have more flexibility as Obama promised Medvedev that he would compromise American missile security when he was beyond the reach of the American electorate. In a similar fashion, Jarrett now has her "flexibility" to reign terror down on her perceived political enemies. After reading this account, does anyone believe that America will win the upcoming war with Russia under our present leadership? _
